To Our Friends.

Executors, administrators, trustees and guardians have the right to name the paper in which publications required by law be made, and we ask our friends to remember the REPUBLICAN when they have publications to make.

What We Do and What We Don't Do.

We advertise what we have to sell. We always have what we advertise. We can and will give you more value for your money than you can get elsewhere.

WHAT WE DON'T DO.

We don't misrepresent. We don't pull you in from the street. We don't hunt you up in the saloons. We don't buy our customers with drinks.

THIS IS OUR GUIDE.

Our goods, at the prices we offer them, will sell themselves.

M. GOLDMAN.

When You Go South

You will wish to be fully informed as to the cheapest, most direct, and most pleasant route. You will wish to purchase your ticket via the route that will subject you to no delays, and by which through trains are run. Before you start you should provide yourself with a map and time-table of the Memphis Route (Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis R. This community was thrown into quite an excitement last week over a mysterious streak of fire that occurred on Mr. Turpin's farm. Mr. G. Hamilton moved his reaper up to Mr. Turpin's place evening before the occurrence and returned home. To his sad misfortune next morning found his reaper destroyed by fire. Mr. Turpin claims to know nothing about it, although he was within one hundred yards performing his morning duties. When informed of the accident he immediately went to the scene, and by investigating near by found there had been 75 rails, supposed to have been placed on the reaper and set on fire, strange to say the weight and heat of 75 rails didn't materially injure the running gear of the machine.

ZION ITEMS.

Two years lost and found. Fred Hartenstein, a boy of this neighborhood, was hunting last week. He saw a skeleton hanging on a limb of a tree, when he came nearer to the tree he found that it was a spring tray with the skeleton of a fox in it.

W. C. T. U. Column.

Miss Kate Marsden has been awarded the insignia of the Russian Red Cross by the empress at Gatchina. She is one of the five English sisters who went to nurse the Russian sick and wounded at Bulgaria.

As total abstinence is clearly safer and wiser than moderate drinking for one who would have his brain and muscles in best condition, what a fool a man is who does not avail himself of the high privilege of being a total abstainer.—S. S. Times.

Mrs. Wells, who is lecturing in the west, gives cheering accounts of the W. C. T. U. work and workers. She says, at Bisbel, a mining town in Arizona, every American woman wears the white ribbon, and the minister, Rev. Mr. Pritchard, stands by to help, holding gospel temperance meetings Sabbath afternoon, and also helping open all the week a free reading room, where can be found all the prominent prohibition papers.

Statistics show that the drinking portion of every 57 adult males, in some communities, (Chicago for instance) supports a saloon. This means that a certain number of families are impaired in their resources to precisely this amount, which must be equal to absorbing the total earnings of at least six families out of the proportion of fifty-seven actively engaged in supporting the saloon. The six families have to be supported by the sober element of the group, and therefore the saloon is the pecuniary enemy of all families in communities tolerating them. The pecuniary damage is not lessened if we choose to regard the ex cense as apportioned upon the average among the whole number. For in any case it means that the saloon subtracts that part of the communal resources, out of which savings and the more ornamental part of the expense would otherwise come. The saloon therefore tends to restrict all families within its influence to a mere struggle for existence, on the lowest and barest plane.—Union Signal.

It will be of interest to women in general and W. C. T. U. Women in particular, to know that a dish-washing machine has been invented by two of our loyal white ribboners, Mr. and Mrs. Steven, formerly of Missouri. Mrs. Steven was prominent in our W. C. T. U. dining hall on the fair grounds, and her greatest difficulty was in having the dishes washed. She thought of it a great deal and finally got a collar box and some hair pins, correlated them according to her idea of how a dish-washing machine might be put together, and presented it to her husband who was of an inventive mind, and encouraged her by saying, "I believe that might work." Together they worked at it six years, but it is said to be a decided success.

An Editor's Pass.

One of the beauties and charms of an editor's life is his deadheading it on all occasions. No one who has never feasted on the sweets of that bliss can begin to take in the glory of its happiness. He does $100 worth of advertising for a railroad, gets a "pass" for a year, rides $25 worth, and then he is looked upon as a deadhead, or a half-blown deadhead. He puffs a concert troupe $10 worth and gets $1 in complimentary, and is thus passed "free." If the hall is crowded he is begrudged the room he occupies, for if his complimentaryes were paying tickets the troupe would be so much in pocket. He blows and puffs a church festival free to any desired extent, and does the poster printing at half rates, and rarely gets a thank you for it. It goes as part of his duty as an editor. He does more work gratuitously for the town and community than all the rest of the population put together, and gets cursed for it all, while in many instances where a man who donates a few dollars to a Fourth of July celebration, base ball club, or church, is gratefully remembered. Oh, it is a sweet thing to be an editor! He passes "free," you know.—Ex.

If you want an A No. 1 sewing machine—the "No.
